The Coach House Kilmuir

Friends of the Coach House

There is a dwelling place,
within it, a tiny space.
Seek what is within.
As wide as the space outside is the space within the heart.
Within it lies heaven and earth ...
everything.

Ancient Scripture

The Coach House Kilmuir Trust is a registered charity (S.C.I.O.) Charity no. SC029790.
Registered address: The Coach House, Kilmuir, North Kessock, Ross-shire IV1 3ZG.

We believe that the Coach House is a gift to the world - its setting, ethos and atmosphere combine to make it a very special place. Countless individuals have benefitted from spending some time at the Coach House; however, we are a small charity run by a dedicated team on a limited budget, and our future cannot be taken for granted.

The Friends of the Coach House are individuals who recognise the importance of the work of the house and are committed to supporting it, not just for themselves, but for others who may discover it and benefit from all that the house has to offer.

Friends of the Coach House help in many different ways, for example:

- by volunteering on an occasional basis as part of the team,
- through regular prayer, individually and corporately,
- through making the house and its work more widely known, and by encouraging others to use us,
- through offering practical support as circumstances permit (such as gardening and decorating),
- by giving financially. This can be done through paying an annual subscription (minimum £12), and/or making a one-off donation, or possibly through some fundraising events.

Will you consider becoming a Friend of the Coach House - in whatever way you can - and help us to continue this important work?

If so, please contact us if you'd like to offer some practical support.

Or if you'd like to make a financial donation then complete the Donation Form opposite and return it to us. We will acknowledge all donations received. If you would like to Gift Aid your donation and haven't already filled in a Gift Aid form, then please complete the Gift Aid Form overleaf.

To comply with Data Protection legislation, please let us know how you want us to contact you when you become a Friend of the Coach House.

For further information, visit our website at www.coachhousekilmuir.org, email us at office@coachhousekilmuir.org or phone us on 01463 731386.

Thank you for your ongoing support.
